Per Board by-laws, a ballot election was held to elect the next Vice-Chair from nominees Regent Coppinger and Regent Durbin. Regent Coppinger was elected with a vote of 5-2.

Verbal reports were presented by the following individuals:

- Ms. Selena Foreman, Staff Council Chair
 - Held Bearcat Bash in May and was well attended
 - Presented to Dr. Tatum and the NLT in May about results from Employee Engagement Survey focus groups. Looking forward to working with them moving forward to make improvements that staff and faculty want to see.
 - My last meeting as Staff Council chair. Duane Havard will take over beginning in July. Thank you for the opportunities in the last 2.5 years
- Dr. Rhonda Beemer, Faculty Senate President
 - I met with NLT to discuss the Employee Engagement Survey. Based on feedback from faculty in departments across campus, faculty indicated that the top concerns are:
 - These themes were discussed with the NLT along with suggestions and examples for their awareness.
 - Faculty Senate is comprised of Committees for matters dealing with faculty advisement and committees for Primary Jurisdiction. In all, there are 14 committees plus any subcommittees. Chairs for committees have been confirmed for the 2024/2025 academic year and Faculty Senate is excited to represent the voice of faculty this year.

- Dr. Rob Voss will be taking over in August.
- Mr. Pat Pijanowski, Foundation Liaison
 - FY24 Fundraising
 - Overall fundraising total for FY24 is expected to be approximately $5.1M, or 102% of our annual goal.
 - Martindale project fundraising is also anticipated to finish the year at slightly above our $3M commitment.
 - The Northwest Foundation Executive Committee met in Kansas City on May 15th to discuss campaign planning, key personnel succession planning, and FY25 Priorities. Dr. Tatum was also in attendance, and his participation, guidance & insights proved to be invaluable.
 - FY25 key priorities include ensuring business continuity as we onboard a new Executive Director and CFO, growing our Donor Pool and gathering data on areas of donor enthusiasm to help inform capital campaign planning, as well as any interim mini-campaigns and targeted recruitment of new members with skills/attributes needed to position ourselves for success in the next capital campaign.
 - The next Northwest Foundation Board meeting is Aug. 1-2.
 - As in years past, we will conduct a New Board Member Orientation session the afternoon prior, on July 31st.
 - The Northwest Alumni Association is participating in the MIAA Day with the Kansas City Royals at Kauffman Stadium on Sunday, July 21 at 1:10 p.m. Tickets are $25 each and includes a baseball cap with the Royals and Northwest logos. The deadline to purchase tickets is Monday, July 15.
- Dr. Lance Tatum, President
 - Congratulations to Dr. Mike Steiner upon his retirement. He leaves a legacy through the thousands of students he has taught, advised and mentored and through his leadership as chair of the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, as associate provost of undergraduate studies and as the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.
 - There has been great progress made in first year goals to:
 - build relationships and a sense of community
 - better understand the culture and traditions of Northwest
 - build awareness of opportunities at Northwest
 - evaluate current challenges, prioritize, develop plan, and begin implementing
 - Infrastructure upgrade project has begun.
 - Work on Martindale Hall has begun:
 - Re-submitted request for federal funding through Congressman Graves' office in March
 - Advancement met the $3 million goal this month
 - State dollars have been secured
 - University funds are in place
 - Succession/Leadership development plan has been developed and is under review for necessary resourcing. The goal is to grow our own into leadership opportunities and to use to recruit talent.
 - Compensation Study results were mixed and generated more questions. The recommendations provided in the study do not align with Northwest's culture, history or current needs. To this end, a cross-functional Compensation Taskforce will be created to engage in a full compensation discussion. Sixteen members from across the institution will begin work in August. The goals are to develop a sustainable compensation model that is consistent and transparent, considers the rate of inflation and its impact on employees, offer possible solutions to improve salary compression and is fair to the workforce.

- Thank you to Chair Swaney for the time, energy and passion demonstrated during her tenure as chair of the Board of Regents.
